Grammar And Beyond 3 Workbook
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with dirt, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom’s naughtiness and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper time. Disguised as a chimney sweep, he tells his aunt that he has been at the university and that he was kicked out of school that afternoon and was enemies with the local boy until a new boy arrived, but lost him. Tom’s half-brother, Sid, has returned. Tom has sworn the boy to keep his own end of the bargain and eventually chooses the newcomer as his own.

Tom goes out of the house in the evening. He finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirtied clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “white alley,” a kind of tradeoff. Jim almost agree, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his tasks.

Tom comes home at supper and tells his proud aunt how he has been skipping school in the mornings and going on secret expeditions to capture fish. When Aunt Polly is satisfied, Tom’s half-brother, Joe, and his friends do some window washing. While wandering the streets of St. Petersburg, Tom meets Becky Thatcher, the new arrival in town. They play hide and seek and eventually chase the newcomers all the way home.
