Taming Of The Shrew No Fear Shakespeare
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scrounging the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out dramatically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sorrowfully on Tom’s misconduct and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at suppers too late, and Aunt Polly has to skip school that afternoon and meet Tom’s schoolmates at the bush. She has told Tom’s half-brother that Tom’s sister is still away from home, but not. Tom’s half-brother, Mark, has sworn the orphan to disguise his presence. Tom goes out of the house in the middle of the afternoon and is never seen again. The dogs howl mournfully and mournful, and Mark Tom has sworn the orphan to disguise his presence.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirtied clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “white ally,” a kind of mustard. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his tasks.
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with ink, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects bitterly on Tom's mischief and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper time. He is wet and soiled and his face is smeared. He tells Aunt Polly about his adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly inquires about Tom's report card. Tom has been skipped school that afternoon and went swimming in the river after school. Aunt Polly is satisfied, but later, Tom's half-brother, Ben, has tell him to disguise his face when he goes swimming tomorrow.

Tom goes out of the house in the evening, still wearing his swimming clothes. While wandering the streets of St. Petersburg, Tom is hearing a woman's voice yelling and whistling. While wandering the streets of St. Petersburg, Tom is hearing a woman's voice yelling and whistling. Tom and the new arrival are both intrigued and eventually chase the newcomers all the way home.
